Fiscal Year 2025-26 Budget Request

CO L O R A D O

Commission on Judicial Discipline

The Colorado Commission on Judicial Discipline is an independent agency created by the Colorado Constitution. The Commission’s constitutional mandate includes:

- Protecting the public from improper conduct of judges;
- Preserving the integrity of the judicial process;
- Increasing the public’s confidence in the judiciary;
- Educating judges and the public regarding proper judicial behavior; and
- Providing for the fair and expeditious disposition of allegations of judicial misconduct.

Colo. RJD 1(b). The Commission’s jurisdiction includes judges of the state courts of Colorado, including the County and District Courts, the Court of Appeals, and the Supreme Court.

The Commission has received record numbers of Requests for Evaluation in recent years.

Each investigation conducted by the Commission begins with a “Request for Evaluation” brought by member of the public. Prior to 2019, the Commission typically received 200 or fewer Requests each year. In recent years, that number has increased, with 250 Requests in 2022 and 344 in 2023. In 2024, the Commission exceeded 300 Requests by early October. The driver of this trend appears to be increasing public awareness of the Commission. This is reflected not just in the record number of requests but in the kinds of requests the Commission receives. For example, Colorado Public Radio recently reported on a surge of Requests from around the country as a result of a single viral video.

The Commission’s current budget is adequate.

As the number of Requests for Evaluation has increased and as it has worked to implement, and operate under, changes and reforms enacted by the General Assembly in recent years, the Commission has increased the staff within the Office of Judicial Discipline. In 2022, the Commission increased the staff of the Office of Judicial Discipline from one (the Executive Director) to three (adding a Special Counsel and an Office Manager). In prior budget cycles, the legislature granted funding for two additional positions to assist the Commission in its work: Paralegal and Investigator. As a result of a leadership change, those positions went unfilled until recently. The Commission hired its new Executive Director, Anne Mangiardi, in July of this year. The Commission expects to fill the remaining two positions in November of 2024, bringing the Office of Judicial Discipline to a total of five staff.

With the full allotment of 5.0 FTE, the Commission expects to keep pace with its workload and obligations within its current budget. For FY 2026, the Commission seeks a continuation budget from the previous year, plus any applicable common policy adjustments.
